Dear Andrew,

Your crew finished installing our new lighting several weeks ago and I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you and your company for the outstanding work that was performed. The installation crew that did the work was timely and so neat it was hard to tell that they were even working in our facility. The most amazing part of the installation was that we were able to continue running our production machines while the crew was changing the lighting fixtures. We did not have one second of down time while the project was in process which we were all amazed at.

I would also like to compliment Lou Alfano for the excellent job he did in managing the entire project, the way he coordinated everything with our people, and also the way he supervised the installation crew.

Should you ever require a reference with a new client please feel free to have them contact me.

Sincerely,

James Kendi
